

Categories Brunch

Tools Bain Mari small, Blender, Fish spatula, French Knife, Grilled, Ladle, Measuring Cups, Measuring Spoons, Mixing Bowl, Rubber Spatula, Squeeze Bottles

Locations The Black Lodge

Plating Round White Clay

Yield	1	qt	Prep	30 minutes
Portion	6	ounces	Cook	10 minutes
Num Portions	3		Finish	40 minutes
			Shelf	2 days

Ingredients

1	cup	canned coconut milk
1	tbl	agave nectar
2	cups	1 1/2 pieces banana puree
1/2	tsp	salt
1/4	tsp	nutmeg
2	teaspoons	baking powder
1	tsp	vanilla extract
1	cup	almond flour
1/2	cup	all purpose gluten free flour
2	tablespoons	ground flax seeds
6	tablespoons	water
2	fl ounces	Berries Couli
2	teaspoons	caramelized dried pumpkin seeds

Production

- Have the grilled ready for service
- Get a ripe bananas, cut them in pieces, using a blender mix the bananas and some coconut milk, Note: the consistence of the puree must be a little thick.
- Mix 2 tbl of ground flex seed with 6 tbl water, stir well, set on the side for at least 10 minutes. Note; the consistence should be sticky like an egg,
- mix all the liquid ingredients using a mixing bowl (banana puree, rest of the coconut milk, vanilla extract, agave nectar) set on the side
- Mix the dry ingredients using a mixing bowl (flours, salt, baking powder, nutmeg)
- Combine both ingredients with a rubber spatula, add the flex seed mix (egg) set on the side for service
- The consistence must be like a pancake mix,
- Caramelize the pumpkin seeds
- Have ready the berries couli (sub-recipe)

Service

Set up the grilled, add some spray (pam), the grilled must have an even temperature. place 3 big scoops of the batter. let the bottom get crust, flip them over and finish to cook them. Using a round clay plate, place a scoop of the berries couli in the center, spread it out, stack the three pancakes, add the caramelized pumpkin seeds and a ramekin with the citrus agave nectar. serve immediately

Date: 6/16/2017

Time: 6:44 PM

Banana Pancakes (Vegan)

Spain + Latin Fusion

SPAIN+LATIN
FUSION

